A comparatively modest present,
but the good ones which I can give.

"Only who knows his past has a future."
Wilhelm von Humboldt (1767-1835)

Foreword

This book contains the facts, who, where, when, but not the story of our family. If you can add to our history or have an anecdote to tell, then please share it and help make our story come alive. Even little things, like your cousin the fisherman who didn't eat fish, will make our story more personal. If you can add to our story, please contact me! I hope to have at least a photo of everyone who is here. It is amazing how often there is a close resemblance for relatives separated by generations.

Introduction

The following pages list data for all known family members as of 6th October 2020.

Each immediate family is presented in their own section that contains a graphical family tree as well as a description with information about each referenced person and their children. The child section provides information about the children of the preceding couple. When a child has offspring of their own this is presented in a separate family section for that child. In this case a '+' is used to denote that an individual will appear later in the book as a parent with his/her own children and there is a link to the appropriate family reference number. For children with partners but no offspring the partner data is given with the reference family. Roman numerals, followed by a period, are used to indicate the birth order.

In the chapter titled "Families of the Starting Person" the ancestors of Abram Sears are presented in a kind of enhanced Pedigree Chart which displays the graphic representation of their direct-line ancestors and the children of the couple. This chapter contains information about the couple whose relatives are listed in the later chapters.

The chapter titled "Families of his Ancestors" provides details (as known as of the publication date) for the relatives of Abram Sears. There is a chapter for each generation. Relatives are listed in the order of the nearness of their relationship.

Sources for the information provided are given in the footnotes.

This document reports the details of 501 individuals, of whom 238 are male and 263 are female. Of the 333 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 61.86 years. Of these, 167 males averaged 62.76 years, and 166 females averaged 60.95 years. The longest living male was Dr David Fisher Atwater (1817–1910), who died aged 92. The longest living female was Anna Sears (1760–1857), who died aged 96.

Families of the Starting Person

Abram Sears

- Abram⁶ Sears (Sunderland⁵, Benjamin⁴, Samuel³, Paul², Richard¹) was born on Monday, 27th October 1783, in Monson, Hampden, Massachusetts, USA. He was the son of Sunderland Sears (5) and Mary Andrus (6).
Abram died in Cortland, New York, on 12th June 1863, at the age of 79.

!Dorothy Peterson Has his will from 1857 and records death as 2 Jun 1858 (but dates don't work with story of being in the Civil War underground?). Her aunt related that "Abraham" belonged to the underground during and after the Civil War, helping blacks get to Canada. He must have lived in Cayuga, Tompkins or Cortland co, NY. One time a black man stopped there with a little girl, whom he felt he could not care for. The Sears family kept the child and raised her after they helped the father to escape. Her name was Treen, she worked in NY but came back to the Sears home to be married and had two children.

!S P May, No 454, Reuben Sears graduated Union College and was setteled over a church in Hudson for several years, but his health failing, he removed to Ballston Spa, where he wrote a poem, extolling the virtues of the mineral waters, which was published in pamphlet form in 1819. He was afterward settled in Dracut, MA and in New Scotland, Albany Co, NY and died in Prophetsville, IL, 1846. He was a Presbyterian clergyman, and one of the most conscientious and devoted persons in existence. His whole life was made up of untiring effort for the good of men. He was one of the first to advocate total abstinence. In one of his early sermons on teh evils of intemperance, he depicts the sad condition from this cause existing among the clergy and elders, also the members of the church, and tells them of the ruin and disgrace they are bringing upon themselves and the church: -and here the very first ideaof the possibility of total abstinence seems to have entered his mind, as he exclaims: "Brethren, these things ought not to be; far better than such a state of things should exist, would it be for all to even totally abstain from the use of all intoxicating beverages." As an anti-slavery man he was a "thorn in the flesh" of the Presbytery and Synod to which he belonged, by his persistent introduction of resolutions denouncing the institution of slavery as "wrong in principle and opposed to true godliness." He died in the firm conviction that God would order it otherwise

!THE TORIES OF CONNECTICUT Published in the Connecticut Quarterly Vol. 1 No. 3 July, August and September, 1895 . Doing the History BY JAMES SHEPARD The bitter feeling against the Tories was more intense during the early stages of the war than at any other time. Those who did the least thing supposed to be favorable to the side of England were stigmatized as public enemies. On the first page of the Connecticut Courant was a list of "Persons held up to Public view as Enemies to the Country." It included names from other states as well as our own. Stephen Sears of Sharon and Lieut. Ebenezer Orvis of Farmington were so published. Sears made a confession before the committee of inspection which was accepted. Rev. Samuel Seabury, a native of Connecticut and the first Episcopal Bishop in the United States, was taken by about forty armed men at his grammar school at West Chester, New York, and brought to New Haven in November 1775. He was carried in triumph about the city, escorted by a large number of armed men who arranged themselves in front of the house of Capt. Sears and there fired two cannon and made other noisy demonstrations, after which he was placed in confinement. In his petition for release he states that on the day of his arrest some forty armed men went to his house, ordered his wife to open his desk, took his papers and all his money save one English shilling and a few coppers. They insulted one of his daughters by running a bayonet through her cap while on her head and twice through the handkerchief on her neck. They also destroyed a quilt around which his family was at work by cutting it in pieces with their bayonets. He was ordered to be removed by the New York Committee of Safety.

Stephen Sears & Dillie Hunterceboetsch

Mar 28, 2018Hello, Leslie,

I found the death record for Stephen Sears born 1738. He did not die during the yellow fever epidemic of 1791, but rather during the yellow fever epidemic of 1795, as recorded in the register of the Presbyterian Churches of Manhattan.

The annotated copy of the book by Samuel May that you posted shows that there was confusion at the time regarding the name of the first wife of this Stephen Sears. It seems that the author found discrepant information in the records versus what he was told by a descendant of Stephen Sears. It is now apparent that the first wife of Stephen Sears b. 1738 was Delia "Dillie" Hunter bp. in 1740, d/o Deacon Jonathan Hunter and Hopestill Hamlin. This latter couple also had a daughter Sarah Hunter who was married to James Pardee. These two women have been conflated into "Sarah Dillie Hunter" in many internet trees but they were not the same woman.

Please see <https://secure.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=gr&GRid=188349365>

Unfortunately, the errors have been so often repeated that they have taken on a life of their own.

Your thoughts are appreciated.

No record of the date can be found, and no record of his marriage, but he is known to have had children:

1. William of whom further.
2. Lydia born January, 1780.
3. Sally,.
4. Betsey.

!From Dan Marzani- Attached file charts my relationship to Richard Sears. I have only done preliminary work on the Sears family.....there are so many of them. One of the problems I have had is finding details on Seth in my diagram (Seth, Benjamin, Samuel, Paul, Richard). There were 3 Seth Sears about the same age and I had some difficulty sorting them out. Unfortunately, the Seth listed in my diagram is the son of Benjamin who moved to "Joes Hill" in the Oblong prior to Seth's birth. You may recall that the Oblong is that 2 by 60 mile disputed border between Connecticut and New York which can be a no mans land for genealogists.....neither CT nor NY wasted time with record keeping in the disputed areas.

However, "Descendents of Richard Sayers(Sears)" does identify Seth on page 79 and 129 as being born in Oblong. Likely chronology would place his birth at around 1750. He did serve in the Revolutionary War. DAR lists his birth as about 1751 (Ancestor #A101115). Further the 1790 census includes Seth as well as his twin brothers Benjamin and Stephen as residents of Dutchess County. I would add this together as Seth b. abt 1751 and died after 1790. The Sears Family Associate website has made a different connection. According to that work, 331 (Seth, Benjamin, Samuel, Paul, Richard) Seth was borne about 1736 in Southeast, Dutchess, NY and died 2 Apr 1809 and was buried in Milltown, gr-st, NY, 166. That would make him in his late forties when he fathered his children. Not impossible. I believe that Seth 331 is actually Seth 639 (Seth, James, Silas, Silas, Richard), son of James Sears and Desire Tobey. The connections become more confusing since he married Sarah Sears, daughter of Stephen Sears and Abigail Burgess who later married Stephen's brother Benjamin (Benjamin, Samuel, Paul, Richard). This relationship is on page 65 of the "Descendents of Richard Sayers(Sears)". It would appear as though Seth 331 and Seth 639 are duplicate entries in the Sears Family Associate website. To add a little more confusion these Seths are 3rd cousin and both served as privates in the 3rd Regiment, Dutchess Co Militia during the Revolutionary War. This started as a simple explanation but nothing seems simple with this family. Regards Dan Marzani

My line is Richard, Paul, Samuel, Benjamin, Seth, Lydia married Stephen Crosby.

Your website lists two Fifth Generation Seth Sears with the same birth and death dates 1736-1809. The DAR website indicates that there were two Seth Sears in the 3rd Regiment and noted that they were not father and son. Their records list different wives and children for the two men. Through my research, I can conclude that I am the descendant of 331 Seth Sears:

331 Seth Sears, Benjamin, Samuel, Paul, Richard

!Ruth G Pickard - The records of the Presbyterian Church at Ballston abound in the names of the progeny of Enoch Hamlin Sears

! Heidi Brewer Detty Enoch Smith Sears was my great(4th power) grandfather who came to Morrow county, Ohio in 1834 from Duches County New York. From the online research that I have done I believe that he is the son of Enoch Hamlin Sears who was also of Duches County New York. Enoch Hamlin Sears had a son Smith Sears who I have found listed with the same date of birth as my great relative. Online they state that Smith Sears went west with some family members and was never heard of again. I feel pretty confident that Enoch Smith Sears is his son. In an 1830 census an Enoch Sears is listed in Albion, New York which is west of Duches County. I could not find him listed in a later census in New York. Enoch Hamlin Sears? wife was identified as Lewis Sears. Enoch Hamlin Sears and Lewis Sears named a son Lewis Sears but he died in childhood. When my great (4) grandfather had children he named one of his sons Lewis Sears. I think this is further evidence that Lewis Sears was his mother. The name Smith Sears is also used in the family again by Enoch Smith Sears? grandson. I believe that either the online sites do not list his full name or he adopted his father's first name.

I am fairly new at this family research. Does anyone have ideas as to how I might go about proving that Enoch Smith Sears is the son of Enoch Hamlin Sears? Enoch Smith Sears and Laura Marvin Sears are also listed as being married in Duches county New York. Any ideas for locating the marriage entry. I suppose that would be a good way to prove. I appreciate any help. - 102. Naomi⁴ Sears (Sarah³, Abigail² Burgess) was born on Sunday, 23rd September 1764, in prob, Southeast, Putnam, New York, USA. She was the daughter of Seth Sears (58) and Sarah Sears (57).

!Ruth G Pickard The search for Naomi Sears' parents has been long and frustrating. She is clearly referred to in two separate Bible records as the wife of Zadock Rider. Her birth is recorded as 23 Sep 1764. Her father is most certainly Seth Sears. In regard to the family of Seth and Sarah (Sears) Sears in the May Genealogy, there are several discrepancies. First of all, there is a tremendous gap between the birth of their first child Enoch Hamlin ca. 1760 and the birth of their next listed child, Seth, to whom Samuel May assigns a ca. 1771 birthdate. A record of the family of Seth Sears, Jr., formerly in possession of Porter Barrows of Sherburne, NY, and published by the James Madison Chapter, DAR (NY DAR Church Cemetery and Town Records v. 123, p.88), says Seth Sears 3rd was born in South East Town, Dutchess County, State of New York, August 11th 176_ (page torn). Ruamy Andress was born in Greenfield, Fairfield co, CT, 24 Jan 17__ (Page torn). Although the date of Seth's birth is incomplete, it obviously did not take place in 1771, as May surmises. The Foster-Livingston Collection of Putnam co Records quotes the tombstone inscription in Milltown Cemetery as follows: "The graves of Seth and Rheuhamah, he died May 1, 1819, 48 y, and she died Dec 9, 1813, 31y." This is the apparent source of May's 1771 birthdate. However, the Bible fragment referred to above is at odds with the date on the tombstone and gives Seth's death date as May 1, 1817. This accords with the date on which his will was entered into probate-- 16 May 1817. If Seth was indeed 48 years old when he died, he would have to have been born in 1769 and not 1771. This leaves Seth and Sarah's "third" child Eleazar H. with a birthdate of 1771, which seems entirely reasonable. Sarah Sears, their "fourth" child, has no birthdate assigned, and their last child, Thankful, about whom a considerable amount of accurate information is given, was born on 30 Jun 1775. In regard to the birthdate of Sarah, the International Genealogical Index, published by the LDS Church, gives a birthdate of 24 Mar 1767, for Sarah Sears but does not assign her any parents. A marriage to Thomas Randall in November, 1787, is also listed for Sarah Sears, but again no aparents are listed. However, it seems likely that this is Seth's daughter. If the family births are arranged according to the information given above, we arrive at a much more reasonable birth order and spacing than the one given by May.

Family of Sarah Sears and Zacheus Raymond

- 104. Sarah⁴ Sears (Sarah³, Abigail² Burgess) was born on Tuesday, 24th March 1767, in Southeast, Putnam, New York, USA. She was the daughter of Seth Sears (58) and Sarah Sears (57).
Sarah died on 26th September 1860, at the age of 93. She was buried in Columbus, Warren, Pennsylvania.
Mrs Charles N (Madeline) Dodd- The 1790 census of Dutchess co, NY shows four families named Sears (Seth, Seth Jr., Benjamin and Stephen). In the 1830 census of Warren co, PA, there was a James Sears living near Zacheus & Sarah Raymond, no connection known. BURIED: Curtis Cemetery
- 105. Sarah married Zacheus Raymond in November 1787 in Dutchess, New York. They had six children: Lewis (1788-1852), Harvey (1790-), Enoch (1792-), Seth (1798-1873), Matilda (1800-) and Lorenzo (1802-).

Zacheus was born in Norwalk, Fairfield, Connecticut, in January 1766. He reached 78 years of age and died in Columbus, Warren, Pennsylvania, on 9th December 1844.

Madeline Dodd - Samuel Raymond's genealogy shows Zacheus disappearing into Nova Scotia after the War in the write-up under his father, Comfort, yet in Zacheus' own paragraph, he supposedly "lived and died in Chenango co, NY," where his wife "lived to a very advanced age, dying about 1853," and "had two children, Enoch and Lewis." Leach (who update Samuel's work) seemed unaware that Zacheus had ever lived anywhere but CT and PA. In fact, he was living in Dutchess co, NY on the 1790 census, and was listed in Chenango co, NY in 1810 and 1820. There was a Zachariah Raymond in Herkimer co in 1800, which was the parent county of Chenango and it's almost certain that Zachariah and Zacheus are the same person. In May 1780 Zacheus enlisted in the Continental Army as Private, for a period of three months following which he reenlisted for another three months and again in 1781 for six months and twenty days as a teamster. He was under the command of Capt Couch and Colonel Canfield in the State of CT. At Zacheus' death, he was buried on his own farm on a hillside just off US Rt 6. Since his burial, a large cherry tree has grown above the grave, which is surrounded by a metal fence. BIRTH: Darwin Everett Leach, HISTORY OF ZACHEUS RAYMOND; 1630-1929; Corry, PA, 1932; p 1 ; copy in poss of Ray Sears; The origin of the family name, RAYMOND, dates back to the year 240, before given names were used. It starts with Raymond the 1st, Count of Toulouse, which was long before Germany, France or Spain were separate countries. Richard Raymond and his wife Judith were members of First Church, Salem, MA. In 1660 he sold one quarter part of "THE GOOD KETCH," called the Hopewell of Salem, of the burthen of thirty tons, now being or riding at anchor in the harbor of Boston. 20 October 1662 he purchased a house and land at Norwalk CT. His children were all baptised in the First Church, Salem. The line to Zacheus is not clear bit appears to go John, Thomas, Comfort, Comfort. Little is known of Zacheus' early life which was spent on a farm (in CT). After the war he removed to Columbus, PA where he resided on a farm until his death. DAR was placed on the pension roll of Warren co, PA, 1833 for his service as private, CT militia

Sunderland Sears began his business life as a clerk in NY city. In 1883 he removed to St Louis and traveled through some of the Northern States engaged in different pursuits. In 1848 he located in St Louis, and entered into the milling business with Henry Whitmore, in the Old Momantum Mills, on Mill Creek, continuing the business till 1869, built the Laclede Mills, and remodeled and rebuilt the Atlantic and Empire Mills. In 1863 the St Louis elevator was built, and Mr Sears was one of the first Board of Directors. In the fall of 1869 Mr Sears was elected President of the Board, and from that time the company which had previously had a severe struggle to maintain itself, entered upon an era of success, which has placed it at the present day as one of the largest and most successful enterprises in the West. Of late years he has had charge of the Empire and Phoenix Flour Mills. Few men have been more intimately connected with the flour and grain interests of St Louis, and few have contributed as much toward making the city the important grain market it is. He eschewed politics, and directed his wonderful energies entirely to business pursuits.
