A comparatively modest present,
but the good ones which I can give.

"Only who knows his past has a future."
Wilhelm von Humboldt (1767-1835)

Foreword

This book contains the facts, who, where, when, but not the story of our family. If you can add to our history or have an anecdote to tell, then please share it and help make our story come alive. Even little things, like your cousin the fisherman who didn't eat fish, will make our story more personal. If you can add to our story, please contact me! I hope to have at least a photo of everyone who is here. It is amazing how often there is a close resemblance for relatives separated by generations.

Introduction

The following pages list data for all known family members as of 1st January 2021.

Each immediate family is presented in their own section that contains a graphical family tree as well as a description with information about each referenced person and their children. The child section provides information about the children of the preceding couple. When a child has offspring of their own this is presented in a separate family section for that child. In this case a '+' is used to denote that an individual will appear later in the book as a parent with his/her own children and there is a link to the appropriate family reference number. For children with partners but no offspring the partner data is given with the reference family. Roman numerals, followed by a period, are used to indicate the birth order.

In the chapter titled "Family of the Starting Person" the ancestors of Ebenezer Sears are presented in a kind of enhanced Pedigree Chart which displays the graphic representation of their direct-line ancestors and the children of the couple. This chapter contains information about the couple whose relatives are listed in the later chapters.

The chapter titled "Families of his Ancestors" provides details (as known as of the publication date) for the relatives of Ebenezer Sears. There is a chapter for each generation. Relatives are listed in the order of the nearness of their relationship.

Sources for the information provided are given in the footnotes.

This document reports the details of 299 individuals, of whom 151 are male and 148 are female. Of the 175 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 55.6 years. Of these, 86 males averaged 57.3 years, and 89 females averaged 54 years. The longest living male was Prof Amos Gould Sears (1823–1920), who died aged 96. The longest living female was Elizabeth Sears (1822–1914), who died aged 91.

101. Priscilla⁹ Sears (William, 100). Born, 21 Sep 1771, in Rochester, MS (Near.). Died, Feb 1859, in North Olmsted, Cuyahoga Co., OH.

*Source of Information: The Cleveland Enterprise, 14 January 1922, "The Spirit of Our Pioneers" by Jane Elliot Snow, part 17: It is noticeable that in many of the townships of this county (Cuyahoga), a few names bore prominence over all others, during the days of their early settlement. In Olmsted township the names of Fitch and Stearns appear to have taken the lead. Mingled with these names that of Thompson comes in, possibly a little later, in point of time. One of the "real daughters" of these families has furnished the writer with a sketch of Priscilla Thompson, nee Sears, one of the leading characters of Olmstead in pioneer times. The story of this woman is vouched for as being absolutely true, and also of never having before appeared in print.

Priscilla Sears was born in Massachusetts, June 6, 1771, and was four years old when the Battle of Bunker Hill was fought. She well remembered the sound of the guns and the sight of the smoke of that battle.

Her brother was there and she climbed up onto a high wood pile to try to pick him out from among the company of "Minute Men" there engaged. As Priscilla grew to womanhood, she at one time worked twelve weeks, and earned twelve silver dollars. Six of these she later gave to a jeweler to pay him for making half a dozen teaspoons from the other six dollars.

A little girl, who has to prefix the word "great" four times before grandmother, to show her relationship, is now the proud possessor of one of these spoons. Possibly it was when Priscilla Sears thought of marriage that she had her silver dollars changed into spoons, for about 1790 she was wedded to Jonathan Thompson, Jr., and with him moved to Vermont.

Before the invention of the cotton gin, and even for many years after, cotton goods were too expensive for ordinary use, and only homespun fabrics were used. Sheep were always kept, and flax raised in abundance on the farm. Priscilla Thompson kept her large family well supplied with woolen clothing and bedding for winter, and linen for summer wear, and for tablecloths and towels. The beds were made of linen ticking, filled with straw or feathers, one of each placed on a high post bedstead, supported by a lacing of rope from rail to rail of the bedstead, both crosswise and lengthwise.

All of the spinning, weaving and sewing was done by Priscilla, assisted by her daughters, after they were old enough to learn the arts. Even the thread with which the garments were sewed was homespun linen.

As the years went by the children married and moved to the west. Left quite alone Jonathan and Priscilla followed them, and settled in their midst, on Butternut Ridge, in 1827 in what is now North Olmsted. Priscilla's mother, Mrs. Betsy Sears (Stearns?) was at this time 83 (?) years old. As her children felt that the trip from Vermont to Ohio in a farm wagon was too strenuous for one of her years she was left behind in the care of another daughter.

Not long thereafter Priscilla Thompson received a letter telling her that her mother had had a stroke, that left her speechless and nearly helpless. This letter was soon followed by another, which told of the death of the sister.

Here was a situation that demanded immediate action. An invalid mother in Vermont, the only daughter that could care for her far away in the wilds of Ohio. It was said of Priscilla that "When she saw her duty, no power on earth could prevent her doing it."

She straightway fitted up a one-horse wagon with such comforts as would be needed for the trip, and started back, alone, to Vermont for her mother. At this time there was not a railroad in the United States. Wagon roads were poor and along much of her journey there was only a trail marked by blazed trees through an unbroken wilderness, where wild animals were frequently seen. After a number of weeks she returned home bringing with her, her paralyzed mother, whom she cared for until her death, which occurred in 1830. Mrs. Thompson was a member of the Baptist church and a great Bible student. As her days were filled with manual work, it was her custom to rise at 4 in the morning any spend one hour reading the Bible, before beginning and labors of the day.

At the age of 70 she spun and wove enough table linen and toweling to last the rest of her life as she said, "she wouldn't have to work so hard when she was old."

When she was 78, a greatgranddaughter was born, who was named Priscilla for her, and also for her daughter, the infant's grandmother. If the first present to that child could be silver it would mean good luck. Mrs. Thompson had heard the baby's grandfather say he was going to give the little Priscilla a sheep. Said grandfather was best known as Vespasian, called "Pash" by his immediate family.

It was March, a south wind was fast melting the winter snow.

Priscilla Thompson reasoned thus: "The best way for Vespasian to take the sheep over to the baby will be in the sleigh. He will have to go soon or the snow will be gone. He will probably go in the morning. I must get there with one of my spoons before Vespasian gets there with his sheep." Now Priscilla lived only a few rods from the grandfather's house, but a long mile and a half from the baby's home. To go by the highway she must necessarily pass his house. If he saw her, he would insist upon her riding with him, then both presents would reach their destination at the same time, which would not do. So Priscilla rose early and walked through the woods and damp snow.

There was a creek running through the woods which in ordinary weather could be crossed on a fallen log. It was now so swollen by the spring freshet that the log had been washed away. Nothing daunted, she found a pole, and selecting a place where the stream was narrowest, vaulted over it and continued on her way. She reached her destination with wet feet, skirts drabbed to the knees, and all out of breath. She rushed into the house and threw one of the silver spoons, which she had earned sixty years before, into the cradle, saying, "There, I did get here before Pash did anyway!"

The grandfather arrived soon after with his sheep, and they returned together in the sleigh. Priscilla never wore glasses, but did her reading with a small magnifying glass that she moved back and forth across the printed page. Crittendon's jewelry store was the only place in Cleveland at that time where spectacles were sold.

On her eighty-seventh birthday, her son, Daniel, drove to the city with her to buy a pair of spectacles, she having decided to try them. But there was not a pair in Cleveland strong enough for her eyes, and she was forced to return without them. Old people were not as numerous in Cuyahoga county then as now, as most of the pioneers were of a younger generation.

The autumn following her eightyseventh birthday anniversary, Mrs. Thompson called at her son Daniel's home, and said she was going to John Ames'. Daniel lived about half way between her home and Ames', and a half mile from either place. He urged her to let him hitch up his horse and take her, but she insisted she would go alone. About three weeks later she again stopped at her son's on her way to the same place. This time she was prevailed upon to drive his horse, although she insisted on going alone.

In February she was taken ill, and no one realized better than she, that the end was near. The second night two granddaughters waited on her as she sat in her chair. After repeated suggestions that she go to bed she said, "I won't go to bed. I've never turned my back on an enemy, and I will meet death face to face!" The next day she sat up in bed, one of her sons supporting her. She asked, "Alden, would you be scart if I died here in your arms?"

"No, mother," he answered. "All Right," she said. Then she requested the Rev. Mr. Dimmick, who was present, to lead in prayer. After that, she asked those present to sing "Rock of Ages," and though her voice was very weak, she sang the hymn through with the rest.

"Now lay me down," she said. Her son gently laid her back on the pillow. She folded her hands across her breast and fell asleep.

John Ames was the local undertaker, and manufacturer of burial cases, but did not keep a stock on hand. After Priscilla died the family sent for him to come and measure her for a coffin. In response to the call he said, "Her coffin is made. Last fall she came and ordered it, and gave minute directions how it should be made. She even got into it to see if it fitted. She pronounced it satisfactory, and paid for it!" Her burial clothes, all made with her own hands, had long been laid aside, ready for the final need.

At the time of Priscilla Thompson's death, she had 110 living descendants. Some of her descendants are in Olmsted, Ohio, today. Others are living in other states, possibly other lands. She married Jonathan Thompson Jr. (215).

They traveled 500 miles with all their household goods upon a sled drawn by a yoke of oxen; were 29 days on the road, and took up land in the then wild country, surrounded by tribes of Seneca Indians, [handnotes]where he resided until his death. Some years after his settlement he opened a tavern in his dwelling house on the east side of the road, a little south of the small run in village of Kiantone. He subsequently built a two story front to his house, and sold his tavern, and a part of the farm, after which he built a large two story tavern house on the north side of the litle run of water, and the west side of the road, in which he died. His heirs sold the tavern stand, which is now owned by Aaron J Phillips. No tavern is kept there. The village of Kiantone was at one time called Searsville, from Wm Sears the first settler at that place. In 1830 a meeting house,(Congregational,) was built on a site given the society by Widow Sears. W Sears was chosen Com.of Highways, in Ellicott in 1813. !In Carroll, John Myers opened a tavern in 1814 on the Conewango, about a mile from Frewsburg, and the same year William Sears established one in now Kiantone, John Owens opening another in 1816 at Fentonville, where he also operated a ferry. These taverns were much frequented by raftsmen, boatmen and prospective settlers, and it is said raftsmen would quarrel for the privilege of a sleeping space on the bar-room floor, that they might enjoy Owens' stories. ! S.P. May p.81, No 35 Paul Sears removed to Rochester, Mass., in 1721, where he purchased land of the Winslows, which was partly in Dartmouth, the site of the old homestead being now in Acushnet. The original deed is in possession of his descendant, Nathaniel Sears of Hyannis, who has also many other old family documents, Bibles, etc. His deed of gift giving his property to his children was dated Dec. 28, 1770, and filed Mar. 27, 1771. He was then too feeble to write his name, and died soon after.

Lundberg Sent: Monday, October 08, 2007 12:53 PMTo: LRSEARS@Cox.net; LRSEARS@CAPECOD.NETSubject: Paul Sears, 1771, Rochester, MA Dear Ray, I obtained your email address on www.searsr.com. Paul Sears (b 21 Dec 1695, d 1771, m 1721 to Charity Whitridge in Rochester, MA) is an ancestor of my wife and I'm trying to find out where he is buried. His son, Nathaniel, is buried in Acushnet, as are most of my wife's relatives. If you have a photo of either of their gravestones I would truly appreciate it. Also, I love your sketches! Attached is one of the oldest stones in my family: John Sayles, husband of Roger William's daughter, Mary. Best Regards, Greg _____ GREGORY H. Dear Ray,

My name is Bob Paul, and I would greatly appreciate your help with a reference for the birth of my seventh great grandmother, Sarah Sears, born 1755, married to Nicholas Sooy, number 1311 in your Sears Family Genealogy. She is listed as born in 1766 in your research. I'm hoping you can share with me a copy of the letter from David G White referencing her birth to parents Paul Sears and Parnell Hammond. I believe she was born in 1755, this according to her headstone.

Thank you so much for any information you can provide!

Best wishes,

Bob Paul=

Sep 15, 2018Hi Leslie,

If you are interested in adding some more family to the Sears tree, I can give you two lines of descendants of Paul Sears and Patience Ware Sears, through their daughters Patience Sears Simmermon and Parnel Sears Sickler. My Granddad Simmermon was descended from Patience Sears and Horatio (Horace was not his given name, I have documentation to prove it) Simmermon and my Grandmother Simmermon was descended from Parnell Sears and William Sickler. I collected a lot of family documents when I joined the DAR last year and discovered that I am a double Sears descendant and a triple Ware descendant. Apparently my family didn't get too far from Gloucester County, NJ back then. Please let me know if you are interested. Have a nice weekend.

!S P May No. 501, p.218 Family tradition says Silas Sears served during the whole of the Revolutionary war, and that he was one of the first chosen by Lafayette to go into his corps. Silas Sears, called "of Scituate," was in Capt Nath'l Winslow's Co, in Col Whitney's Regt., from Jun to Nov 1776, and was allowed for 77 miles' travel; he, then of Rochester; was in Capt Edw'd Hammond's Co, in Col Saml Fisher's Regt, 15 Aug to 13 Sep 1779, 80 miles' travel, wages and subsistence, £2.12.0; served in Continental service with six-months' men, from 6 Jul to 8 Dec 1780; arriving in Springfield for service in Northern army, 8 Jul 1780; was allowed for 5 mos. 14 days' service and 240 miles' travel, £12.2.10; description: Silas Sears from Rochester, aged 17, 5 ft 10 inches height, dark complexion. He afterward removed to Vermont, and settled on a farm near River Lamoille. He is said to have married against his father's wishes, which occasioned a breach in the family relations. In 1813 he started for Boston on horseback, but was overtaken by a messenger on the third day from home, and informed of the sudden and severe sickness of his family. He at once retraced his steps, but when he reached home his wife and daughter Betsy were dead and Sally dying of spotted fever. m. by Rev Saml West

!S.P. May p.488 (No 2279) Mr Sears studied at Waterville, ME, and Amherst, MA; was a teacher, and Principal of Gallia Academy, Gallipolis, OH, for 11 years, and of Elgin Academy 11 years, when he retired, and now resides in Chicago, IL, engaged in real estate business. Prof and Mrs Sears took charge of Elgin Academy under unfavorable circumstances. The attendance had been low; the growing popularity of the public schools interfering with its prosperity; a debt was hanging over it, and the enthusiasm of its friends had waned. They brought to the work just the qualities needed; were quick to perceive what to do, and proceeded to the work in hand with directness and energy. The debt was paid, the grounds improved, the students came in greater numbers, the school was advertised, the alumni interested, and the students themselves began to help the work of building up. The school grew to number more than 200 students; each year something was added to the apparatus and to the grounds; each year a larger class was graduated, and the school was elevated to a standing among the best in the State. Prof and Mrs Sears won the confidence of the community, and compelled the respect and love of all with whom they were associated. As teachers, they were eminently successful; and as business managers, they succeeded beyond expectation. !In the 1860 census he is in Gallipolis, OH as an Academy Principal, with wife and son.

FindAGrave-He was the son of Ebenezer and Diana (Jones) Sears. Amos's father's family had come to America nine generations before Amos was born. He was educated in Waterville Maine and Amherst Massachusetts and on June 1, 1847 in Rockingham, Vermont, he married Susan Augusta Davis. They were the parents of one son, Nathaniel Clinton Sears. In 1854, Amos and Susan began their work in education at Gallia Academy High School in Gallipolis Ohio. Amos was the principal and teacher and Susan was a teacher. Under their direction, the school no longer segregated the boys and girls in the classrooms. Amos separated the school into two different departments, Academic and Preparatory. They left the school in 1867 and moved to Elgin Illinois where he took charge of the Elgin Academy, an independent, coeducational, college-preparatory school there. At the time, the school was suffering from debt and a lack of attendance. Amos organized a curriculum to stimulate the students and prepare them for life in college and business. The school became prosperous, in part because he was able to convince alumni to invest in the school and its purpose. In 1881, he left the school and dabbled in real estate a few years before retiring.
