A comparatively modest present,
but the good ones which I can give.

"Only who knows his past has a future."
Wilhelm von Humboldt (1767-1835)

Foreword

This book contains the facts, who, where, when, but not the story of our family. If you can add to our history or have an anecdote to tell, then please share it and help make our story come alive. Even little things, like your cousin the fisherman who didn't eat fish, will make our story more personal. If you can add to our story, please contact me! I hope to have at least a photo of everyone who is here. It is amazing how often there is a close resemblance for relatives separated by generations.

Introduction

The following pages list data for all known family members as of 22nd December 2020.

Each immediate family is presented in their own section that contains a graphical family tree as well as a description with information about each referenced person and their children. The child section provides information about the children of the preceding couple. When a child has offspring of their own this is presented in a separate family section for that child. In this case a '+' is used to denote that an individual will appear later in the book as a parent with his/her own children and there is a link to the appropriate family reference number. For children with partners but no offspring the partner data is given with the reference family. Roman numerals, followed by a period, are used to indicate the birth order.

In the chapter titled "Families of the Starting Person" the ancestors of Winthrop Sears are presented in a kind of enhanced Pedigree Chart which displays the graphic representation of their direct-line ancestors and the children of the couple. This chapter contains information about the couple whose relatives are listed in the later chapters.

The chapter titled "Families of his Ancestors" provides details (as known as of the publication date) for the relatives of Winthrop Sears. There is a chapter for each generation. Relatives are listed in the order of the nearness of their relationship.

Sources for the information provided are given in the footnotes.

This document reports the details of 207 individuals, of whom 102 are male and 102 are female. The sex of 3 individuals is unknown. Of the 118 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 52.2 years. Of these, 62 males averaged 50.4 years, and 55 females averaged 54.2 years. The longest living male was Annie R Sears (1850–1953), who died aged 102. The longest living female was Hannah Howes Davis (1855–1946), who died aged 91.

!LB It was during the Revolutionary War that he heard the dreaded cry, The British are coming. His first thought was for the safety of his wife and infant daughter, Sabra. Then he bethought of his potato hole, for it seems it was the custom to dig big holes in the ground where men put their potatoes and other vegetables to keep for the winter. So into this hole he lowered his wife and baby. Fortunately they did not have to stay very long for it was a false alarm.

!To: Ray Sears Subject: Richard Sears, b. 1789 Hi Ray, Bonnie Snow, Orleans town historian and head of the Orleans Historical Society, gave a talk at CCGS Wednesday about 60 letters she has copies of from the 1800s. They were addressed to Ruth Hedge of Yarmouth (a relative of mine), by various family members, and it was a fascinating story they told. Ruth Hedge (b. 1789) was married to Richard Sears (b.1789) in 1810. His parents were Eleazar Sears and Bertha Godfrey. Richard had a seafaring life, part of which--or most?--was in New York. Bonnie would like to know if this Sears is one you are familiar with and do you know anything about his being a mariner. She does not have a computer or email, so I said I would write to you. If I could give her your USPS address, she would like to have it. As you have seen by

!This is a beautiful vessel of 770 tons register, with long, sharp ends a buoyant floor, and is designed not only to sail fast, but to stow a large cargo. She is 165 feet long on the keel, 171 feet between perpendiculars on deck, has 34 1/2 feet extreme breadth of beam, and 23 feet depth of hold, including 8 feet height of between decks. She has 13 inches dead rise at half floor, 2 feet sheer, and tapers in aft 4 1/2 feet on each side from her extreme breadth of beam. Her stem is nearly upright, though her head is carried well out and rises up to the bowsprit. It is a neatly carved and gilded billet, and its lower outline is the continuation of the moulding of the planksheer; and the trailboards and navel hoods are blended in one, and are ornamented with carved work. She has a waist of six narrow strakes, defined between the mouldings of the upper wale and the planksheer, and her stern is nearly oval in outline, and ornamented with gilded carved work, in the centre of which are representations of pearl shells, and her name and port of hail are also in gilded letters, upon a scroll from each side of the arch. ground of the stern is black, and her hull above the yellow metal, with which she is sheathed, is of the same color. She has a topgallant forecastle, a large gouse abaft the foremast for her crew, galley, &c., and another house aft for her cabin, built into a half poop deck. The cabin is white, relieved with gilded lines and flowers, and has spacious state rooms on each side, for the accommodation of passengers. The cabin and state rooms are neatly finished and well furnished. The bulwarks, houses, &c., are painted buff color, relieved with white, and the waterways are blue. Her frame, all the hooks, all the stanchions, and all the knees in the hold are of white oak, the knees in the between-decks of hackmatack, and her ceiling, planking and deck frame are of hard pine. The keel is of rock maple, sided 15, and moulded 20 inches, on floor timbers on the keel are 11 by 16, and she has two depths of midship keelsons, each 15 inches square, with a rider over them, and sister keelsons alongside the lower tier, the whole strongly bolted with copper and iron, the copper driven through and rivited. The floor ceiling is 4 inches thick, on the bilge are two strakes of 13 inches, then follow 2 of 9 inches, then 3 of 8 inches, graduated to 7, and then a lap stringer of 10 inches, upon which the lower ends of the hanging knees rest; and the clamps above are 7 1/2 inches thick, all square fastened. She is square bolted throughout. Her between-decks waterways are 15 inches square, with thick work inside and over them, and the ceiling above is 5 inches thick. The upper deck waterways are 12 inches square, and the planksheer and main rail are each 6 inches thick. She has 7 inches garboards, wales of 5 by 7, and waist of 4 inches, all square fastened, and butt and bilge bolted in the usual style. Her lower deck beams are 15 inches square, and those under the upper deck are 9 by 15, and her deck planking is 3 1/2 inches thick. Her ends are strongly secured with hooks and pointers, and her hold stanchions are kneed in the wake of the hatchways. In a word, she is very strongly built and well finished. She is seasoned with salt, and has Emerson's patent ventilators and all the other improvements of the day. Her lower masts are of single spars, and are 74, 78 and 69 feet long, the fore and main topmasts 42, and the mizzen topmast 31, and the other masts in proportion. The yards upon the fore and main masts are alike, the lower yards 67, the topsail yards 56, and the crossjack yard 54, and the mizzen topsail yard 44 feet square, and the others in like proportions. She is handsomely sparred, and well rigged. Messrs. Blanchard & Caldwell made her spars, and Mr. Joseph J. McClennen rigged her. She was built at Charlestown, by Mr. Joseph Magoun, and was modelled by Mr. Elisha Stetson. Capt. Winthrop Sears, who now commands her, superintended her construction and equipment, and he has done his work well. Capt. Sears is well known as an excellent sailor, and every way qualified to make her do her best. She is owned by Messrs. Alpheus Hardy, Joshua Sears, and others, and is now loading with despatch in Tomothy Davis & Co.'s line of California clippers. She is lying at the south side of Long wharf, and will sail for San Francisco in about a week. Call and see her. Messrs. Davis & Co. have also engaged the magnificent new clipper ship King Fisher, Capt. Tully Crosby, to follow the Ocean Pearl. This splendid vessel is nearly 1200 tons register, and is designed expressly for speed. We will endeavor to give a sketch of her soon. Boston Daily Atlas, August 29, 1853.

!Yarmouth Register, 10 Mar 1883, p 1, Capt Winthrop Sears -- departed this life at his home in Yarmouth Port, on Wednesday evening last. He was at the director's meeting at the Bank, on Monday forenoon, and about noon was taken with intense pain, and Dr Pulsifer, and later Dr Marstin of South Yarmouth, were summoned to his assistance. Temporary relief was gained, but the former trouble returned on Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday evening he passed quietly away. His disease was neuralgia of the heart, with nervous prostration. Capt Sears was born in West Yarmouth, Jan 2, 1818, and at the age of 18 commenced following the sea. At 21 years of age he was master of the brig Robert Wall, a Philadelphia and Boston packet, and afterwards of the bark Tremont, the Ocean Pearl, and for several years of ship Conquest, in the foreign trade. After this he was in charge of the Benj. Franklin, the pioneer boat of Boston and Philadelphia steamship line, the Wm. Penn, of the same line, and the Concordia and St Louis, of the Boston, New Orleans and Liverpool line. During the war he was in command of a transport in the United States service. His last service at sea, was as commander of steamer Saxon, of the Boston and Philadelphia line. Capt Sears retired from the sea about ten years ago, and also from active business pursuits. He was, however, intimately identified with the affairs of this community, and such was the reliance placed in his judgement and integrity, that his services were often sought in the public transactions and enterprise of the day. He was elected one of the board of Selectmen, Assessors and Overseers of the Poor for several successive terms, retiring in January of his own accord, and had his life been spared he would have again been called to the same position. He was a Director of the First National Bank, a Trustee of the Woodside Cemetery Association, and connected with other local organizations. Affable in his manners, correct and just in his business relations, he enjoyed a wide popularity among his associates, who will greatly miss him in the various relations of life. Capt Sears was three times married, and leaves a widow and four children to lament the great loss which they, as well as the public, have sustained by this afflictive event.

Marriages with Polly Freeman Hallet, Lucy Ann Sears (Page 46) and Clara W Myrick (Page 48) are known.

Sunday, November 01, 1998 6:33 PM To: ray.sears@halliburton.com Subject: Bethia Sears (1765-1809) I write to provide information I have about Bethia Sears and her first husband, Benjamin Hallett. The line of descendant information on the internet shows her marriage in November, 1787, to Benjamin Hallett and her later marriage to Gorham Baker, but there is nothing about the sons born to her marriage with Benjamin Hallett. One son, Sears Hallett, was my 2nd Gr-grandfather, and his birth in 1787 is reported in The Hallet Family of Yarmouth, #84 Library of Cape Cod History & Genealogy, Page 8; that source also reports the birth of a brother, Benjamin, born Jan 21, 1790. The information I have about the marriage and the next three generations is as follows: Generation No. 1 1. BETHIA 6 SEARS (ELEAZAR⁵, THOMAS⁴, SILAS³, SILAS², RICHARD (SAYRES)¹) was born December 17, 1765 in Yarmouth, MA, and died Aft. 1809. Thank your for the work you have put into the web page and the information it contains. It was the first time I found a summary of the problems with the ancestry of Richard Sears - I have spent some time puzzling over a number of World Family Tree reports and the improbability of a connection with John Hawkens - the dates just did not fit. Henry W. Hunt at Hyannis. This enterprising gentleman, an enthusiastic summer resident of Hyannis, has secured by purchase one of the largest and most sightly tracts of shore property on the south shore of Cape Cod. This property embraces about a mile of water front bordering on Lewis Bay and extends from Ocean Street to the tunnel creek, taking in the old Sears Hallett estate, the site of one the first settlers of Hyannis, and the Fish Hills, the highest point of land hereabouts. This property has been the envy for years of all seekers for summer places who visited Hyannis, but it being held by a number of owners was in such a complicated state that it was impossible to buy any desirable parts of it at what might be considered satisfactory prices.

WEST YARMOUTH.

Death of Capt. Cyrus Sears

Capt. Cyrus Sears, died 4th inst. at his home in Baltimore, Md., after an attack of heart trouble.

He was born here Nov. 5, 1834. Capt. Sears began his career at the age of 12 years with his father in one of the clippers out of Boston. When 31 years old he was master of a sailing ship of his own and remained in command of one until the Confederate pirates drove them off the seas.

Then Capt. Sears entered the Federal volunteer navy, serving in the war as an officer and commander on the Honeyuckle and Clyde and on the frigate Dale. In 1874 he went to Baltimore and entered the shipbrokerage business.

Upon the inception of the Atlantic Transport Line by D. N. Baker, Capt. Sears became its marine superintendent, which position he occupied at Canton until the absorption of the line by the shipping combine. After the formation of the Cuban republic he was its consular representative at Baltimore for nearly two years.

He is survived by a widow and two daughters, Mrs. George H. Hunneman of Boston, and Miss Annie R. Sears. He was a charter member of the
